DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 09/15/2004 has been entered.

This office action is in response to the amendments filed on 12/21/2004 and 09/15/2004.

Claims 1-20 are pending for examination, claims 1-6, 9-10 and 12-20 have been amended.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 2161

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Crouse et al. (U.Ş. Patent No. 5,764,972) in view of Baca et al. (U.Ş. Patent No. 5,898,593).

As to claim 12, Crouse et al. [hereinafter referred as Crouse] discloses a system [Abstract, Fig. 2] for processing file input/output commands of one or more removable media from a storage device [e.g., see Fig. 9 and associated texts], the system comprising:

- a) a user interface [e.g., the network file interface (34) running on user node (10), Fig. 2] for receiving input/output identification data including the data to identify one or more media [e.g., the media type, volume serial Name, location and access attributes at col. 14, line 47 Col. 16, line 5] from the storage device for removing [e.g., col. 16, lines 50 col. 17, line 12; col. 19, Removable Media Module processing section; the unload media processing (492, Fig. 16e)].
- b) a data file stored in a memory device for storing the export identification data [e.g., the Removable Media Reserved File 194, Fig. 9; col. 19, lines 37-51];
- c) a task control subsystem [e.g. the AFS Control Program (40), Fig. 2] for retrieving [e.g. via the Scan module 192, Fig. 9] the export identification data from the data file and controlling the library to cause the export of the selected media [e.g., Fig. 9 and associate texts specifically col. 20, lines 14-39].

Art Unit: 2161

Crouse did not specifically disclose the file input/output commands including a scheduling of an exporting processing.

However, Baca et al. (herein after referred as Baca) discloses a system having a user interface for scheduling an import and export of removable devices [e.g., Title, Abstract, col. 7, lines 1-60].

Crouse and Baca are in the common field to process file input/output operations via a common user interface, therefore, with the teachings of Crouse and Baca in front of him/her, an ordinary skilled person in the art at the time the invention was made would have been motivated to modify Crouse's user interface with the import and export commands as disclosed by Baca, because by doing so, the combined system will faciliate a system user to schedule the import or export operation with ease.

As to claims 13-14, except all the above, the combined system further discloses that the user interface is configured to allow a user to specify one or more media to be exported by one or more respective media identifiers/criteria [e.g., Crouse: col. 15, lines 3-49] and store the specified media identifier/criteria [e.g., Crouse: col. 19, lines 37-51].

As to claim 15, except all the above, the combined system further discloses that the task control subsystem comprises an evaluator [e.g., Crouse: the AR module 184,

Art Unit: 2161

Fig. 9] to evaluate the stored criteria to determine which one or more media in the library satisfy the specified one or more criteria [Crouse: col. 22, lines 8-27].

As to claim 16, except all the above, the combined system further discloses that system having an export history data file which containing a field associated with each media indicating the status of the export of the media [e.g. Crouse: the Archive Status field of the table between col. 21- col. 22],

As to claim 17, the combined system further discloses that the user interface is configured to allow a user to specify a specific event following which the media is to be exported [e.g., if the system user specifies the life span for a remote file, once the life span is exhausted, the file is eligible for termination when the media space is needed

[e.g., Crouse: Fig. 14d, col. 22, lines 55-64].

As to claims 1-11 and 18-20, these claims recited similar features as cited in claims 12-17, in form of method or computer readable medium, hence are rejected for the same reason.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

To expedite the process of re-examination, the examiner requests that all future correspondences in regard to overcoming prior art rejections or other issues (e.g. 35 U.S.C. 112) set forth by the Examiner prior to the office action, that applicant should provide and link to the most specific page and line numbers of the disclosure where best support is found (see 35 U.S.C. 132).

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure: Dewey (U.S. Patent No. 5,412,668) which discloses a system for optical disks processing.
